CHAPTER 541—S. F. No. 1626

[Coded]

An act relating to wild animals and enforcement of the laws relating thereto; providing for reciprocity with other states and the United States in appointing officers therefor; amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Chapter 97, as amended, by adding a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Chapter 97, as amended by Laws 1959, Chapters 122, 363, and 442, is amended by adding a section to read:

[97.501] Laws relating to wild animals; enforcement; reciprocity with other states in appointing officers. Subdivision 1. Reciprocal effect. The provisions of this section or any part thereof shall be in effect with respect to any other state or the United States whenever, so long as, and so far as, there are in force therein, respectively, reciprocal provisions of law of like effect with respect to this state as the provisions of this section or the corresponding part thereof.

Subd. 2. Appointment of officers of other states or the United States as special game wardens of this state. Upon request or with the approval of the proper authority of another state or of the United States, respectively, to continue in effect as provided by the laws thereof, the commissioner may appoint as a special game warden of this state in the unclassified service thereof any salaried and bonded officer of such other state or of the United States who is authorized to enforce any provision of the laws thereof relating to wild animals, to serve at the pleasure of the commissioner and subject to his supervision and control. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law or directed by the commissioner, every such special game warden shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities as regular game wardens of this state, but shall receive no compensation from this state.
