Subd. 2. The regents of the University of Minnesota shall report to the legislative building commission on transfers made under this section.

Sec. 11. Such sums of money as may be necessary to make the transfers provided for in Sections 8 through 10 are hereby appropriated for such purposes.

Sec. 12. There is hereby appropriated to the commissioner of administration, not to exceed $66,500 which may be expended by him for the administration of the building program covered by this appropriation, including the employment of personnel. Any persons so employed shall be in the unclassified service.

Sec. 13. The moneys appropriated to the commissioner of administration for contingencies in the sum of $200,000 by Section 3, Subdivision 3, may be expended for plans, studies and surveys, and for the maintenance, repair, construction, reconstruction, improvement or rehabilitation of any state-owned building or structure, if it appears to the commissioner that such an expenditure is necessary in the public interest in order to avoid injury or damage to persons or property and funds have not been otherwise appropriated for such purposes. The commissioner, however, shall not authorize any expenditures from such appropriation until he has first consulted the legislative building commission and such commission has made its recommendations thereon. Such recommendation shall be advisory only. Failure or refusal of the commission to make a recommendation promptly shall be deemed a negative recommendation.

63 R c1
Sec. 14. Subdivision 1. For the purpose of providing funds appropriated by this act, there is hereby levied upon all taxable property in this state, including notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 273.13, Subdivisions 6 and 7, as amended, all real property used for the purposes of a homestead, a tax sufficient to produce

Changes or additions indicated by italics, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.

$29,361,000 which the state auditor shall cause to be extended and collected in the manner in which other state taxes upon real and personal property are extended and collected, to be included in the levies spread upon the tax rolls for the years 1962-1981, inclusive, in amounts sufficient to produce the sum of $1,468,050 in each of the years 1963-1982, inclusive, plus additional amounts sufficient to produce such sums as may be necessary to pay the interest upon certificates of indebtedness issued pursuant to the provisions of this act. The proceeds of such tax levies and of the sale of certificates of indebtedness issued hereunder shall be credited to the Minnesota state building fund. In case of a deficiency of such tax levy for any year, the auditor shall levy sufficient additional amounts in succeeding years to compensate therefor until the full amount herein authorized has been raised. The moneys in the Minnesota state building fund are hereby appropriated for the purposes herein specified.

Subd. 2. The state auditor shall, in anticipation of the collection of taxes levied in Subdivision 1 hereof, issue and sell certificates of indebtedness in the amount and subject to the limitations herein prescribed. Such certificates shall be known as state building certificates of 1962-81, and shall be issued upon the certification of the commissioner of administration that funds are needed for the purposes authorized herein, not exceeding $29,361,000 in the aggregate. Such certificates shall be numbered consecutively and shall be issued and sold at not less than par upon sealed bids after two weeks' published notice, unless sold to the state board of investment, which may invest any funds under its control or direction in any such certificates of indebtedness so issued and to purchase such certificates, notwithstanding any limitations imposed by Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 11.10, or any other law inconsistent herewith, at such rate of interest as it may determine. Such certificates and interest coupons attached thereto when issued shall have all the qualities of negotiable instruments and shall be incontestable in the hands of a bona fide holder thereof of value notwithstanding any provisions in Minnesota Statutes 1957, Chapter 335, to the contrary. Such certificates shall be in such sum and of such denomination and shall mature at such times as the state auditor shall determine, not exceeding the time when funds shall be available for the payment thereof from the tax levies herein authorized. Such certificates shall bear such rate of interest, payable semi-annually, and shall contain such other terms and provisions not inconsistent herewith, as the state auditor may require. Such certificates shall be signed by the state treasurer and attested by the state auditor under their official seals and the state auditor and the state treasurer shall keep records thereof. Such certificates shall be a charge against the taxes herein authorized. The principal and interest of such certificates shall be payable from the proceeds of such taxes, and so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for such payments, provided that such interest as may become due at any time when there is not on hand a sufficient amount from the proceeds of such taxes to pay the same, shall be paid out of the general revenue fund in the state treasury, and the amount necessary therefor is hereby appropriated, to be reimbursed from the proceeds of such taxes when received.

Subd. 3. Any expenses incidental to the printing and sale of certificates of indebtedness, including actual and necessary travel and subsistence expenses of state officers and employees for such purposes, shall be paid from the Minnesota state building fund and the amounts therefor are hereby appropriated from such funds.

Subd. 4. None of the certificates of indebtedness authorized by this section shall be issued and sold prior to December 1, 1962.

Sec. 15. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, all moneys appropriated herein shall be deemed for construction or other permanent improvement and shall be available until the purposes for which such appropriation was made shall have been accomplished or abandoned.

Approved June 6, 1961.
