

Sec. 2. Laws 1955, Chapter 129, Section 2, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Sec. 2. Judges. Subdivision 1. Judges of municipal court serve as judges; referees for conciliation court.
 (a) The judges of the municipal court of the city of Minneapolis shall serve as judges of the conciliation court for such periods and in such rotation as the judges may determine. While so serving they shall act and be known as conciliation judges.

(b) The municipal judge who conducts the conciliation court hearing shall act upon any applications to vacate a judgment or an order for judgment whatever the grounds may be and shall sign the certificate upon a removed cause, but any other municipal judge may act upon such an application or sign such a certificate in the event that the judge who conducted the hearing has not previously denied the application and cannot act upon the application promptly or sign the certificate due to expiration of his term, death, disability, absence from the court house or any other cause.

(c) The judges of municipal court may appoint one or more suitable persons to act as referees in conciliation court. The judges of municipal court shall establish qualifications for the office, specify the duties and length of service of referees, and fix their compensation not to exceed $35 per day or any part thereof. This compensation shall be payable from the same funds from which the salaries of the judges of conciliation court are now paid, at the same time and in the same manner as salaries of the judges of conciliation court.
