CHAPTER 93—H. F. No. 85

[Coded]

An act relating to daytime activity pilot project centers for mentally retarded persons; appropriating money therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. [252.15] Daytime activity pilot projects for mentally retarded persons; purposes. In order to better ascertain the extent of the need for daytime activities for the mentally retarded, and in order to determine the staff, facilities, and type of activities necessary to carry out such a program and the cost of such a program, the commissioner of public welfare shall reimburse, within the limits of money appropriated, the expenses of those sponsoring organizations he selects to operate pilot project community centers for daytime activities for mentally retarded persons.

Sec. 2. [252.16] Applicants for aid. Any city, village, borough, county, town, or non-profit corporation now or hereafter organized to help the mentally retarded or which has help for the mentally retarded as a part of its purpose, or any combination thereof, may apply to the commissioner for reimbursement of expenses for operating an existing daytime activity center for mentally retarded persons in order that it may serve as a pilot project, or for reimbursement of expenses for operating a new center to serve as a pilot project. The sponsoring organization shall apply on forms which the commissioner shall prepare and
