CHAPTER 556—H. F. No. 1776

[Not Coded]

An act relating to the county and city joint participation in the establishment, operation, and maintenance of detention facilities, workhouse, workfarm or any combination thereof; amending Laws 1955, Chapter 353, Sections 1 and 17, as amended, and adding new sections.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Laws 1955, Chapter 353, Section 1, as amended by Laws 1957, Chapter 664, Section 8, and Laws 1961, Chapter 435, Section 1, is amended to read:

Section 1. St. Paul-Ramsey county; detention facilities. The county of Ramsey and the city of Saint Paul may jointly acquire land for, erect, equip, furnish, maintain and operate a joint city and county detention facility or facilities, and joint city and county work house, work farm, or any combination of the foregoing to be used jointly by such county and city. However, nothing in this act shall empower the authority hereby created to remove the county jail from its present location, nor to take from the sheriff jurisdiction over adult prisoners charged to his custody and pending action by the courts.

Sec. 2. Laws 1955, Chapter 353, Section 17, as amended by Laws 1967, Chapter 664, Section 3, is amended to read:

Sec. 17 Unused lands sold, disposal of proceeds. In case any land or buildings owned and used by either the county or the city, or jointly owned and used by them, shall not be required for the use of the county or city, or both of them, after the completion of the joint facility or facilities, the land and buildings shall be sold as soon as practicable and the proceeds shall be used by the ~~com-~~ ~~mission~~ detention and corrections authority created hereunder for the purposes of this act, and shall be credited to the unit of government in the same manner as provided in section 2. Such proceeds may from time to time at the direction of the appropriate unit of government, either county or city, be applied toward the reduction of any outstanding liability hereafter incurred, including liability for outstanding bonded indebtedness hereafter incurred, with respect to said unit of government arising out of new construction involving the expansion or enlargement of any existing joint facility or facilities. Such proceeds shall not be used in connection with ordinary operation or maintenance of such facility or facilities.

Sec. 3. There is added to Laws 1955, Chapter 353, a new section to read:

Upon the filing by the commission of the report provided for by Laws 1955, Chapter 353, Section 18 and the discharge of said commission thereupon, the detention and corrections authority designated by Laws 1957, Chapter 664, Section 7 shall succeed to all of the authority, rights, duties, and obligations theretofore possessed by said commission as set forth in Laws 1955, Chapter 353, as amended, except as to those provisions of Laws 1955, Chapter 353, as amended, which by their terms and provisions have been effectuated, have expired or terminated. After the effective date of this act, reference to the commission under the provisions of Laws 1955, Chapter 353, as amended, shall be understood to apply and be applicable to the detention and corrections authority.

Subject to approval of the city council of the city of Saint Paul and the board of county commissioners of Ramsey county, indicated by resolution adopted by each of said bodies, the detention and corrections authority is hereby authorized to provide for and undertake the construction, reconstruction, expansion or modification of any existing joint city and county detention facility or facilities used jointly by such county and city, including the joint city and county workhouse and workfarm, the juvenile detention facility commonly known as the "Woodview Detention Home", the juvenile boys' correction facility known as "Boys Totem Town", and any other detention facility hereafter established to be used jointly by such county and city.

Upon the discharge of said commission, all files, records, abstracts of title to property, contract documents, architectural plans and specifications, and all other records and documents assembled or received by the commission pursuant to authority heretofore granted, shall become and remain the property of the detention and corrections authority and shall be retained in the office of the chief administrative officer of said authority for safekeeping.

Sec. 4. There is added to Laws 1955, Chapter 353, a new section to read:

Bonds, issuance by county. The county of Ramesy shall have the power to borrow, for the purpose of providing its share of the expense of expanding, enlarging, modifying and equipping the joint detention facility known as "Boys Totem Town" a sum not to exceed $300,000, or so much thereof as the board of county commissioners of said county may deem necessary, to defray the county's share of the cost for expansion of, constructing an addition to, or enlargement or modification of said "Boys Totem Town." For the purposes aforesaid, the board of county commissioners is hereby given the power and authority to issue and sell, from time to time and without submitting the question of the issuance of the same to a vote of the people, the bonds of said county in the sum and amount of $300,000 or such part thereof as shall be deemed necessary, the proceeds of the sale of such bonds to be used for the purposes specified herein, and to secure the payment of such bonds by pledging the full faith and credit of the county therefor. Such bonds shall be in such form and bear interest at such rate as the said county may prescribe and shall be sold by such county through its board of county commissioners to the highest bidder, therefor, after notice of the time and the place for the receiving of the bids has been published according to law. Said bonds shall be issued to mature serially, the first installment of which shall become due and payable in not more than three years and the last of which shall become due and payable in not more than thirty years from their date. The proceeds received from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited by the county in a fund to be designated as the detention and corrections authority fund, and the moneys shall be disbursed therefrom for the purposes aforesaid in the same manner as other funds of the county are disbursed, but only for the purposes herein expressed and according to such other procedural requirements in reference thereto as are set out specifically in this act.

Sec. 5. There is added to Laws 1955, Chapter 353, a new section to read:

Tax levy for payment of bonds. The county shall have the power to levy annually upon all taxable property in the county, without limitation as to rate or amount, such ad valorem tax as may be necessary to provide for the payment of the interest on such bonds as the same accrues and the payment of the principal thereof in full at maturity. The levy of such tax for such purpose is hereby made the duty of the board of county commissioners of such county. The powers granted to said county to levy taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds shall be in addition to all other taxing powers of said county and shall exist independently of any restrictions upon the power of such county to levy taxes for other purposes.

Sec. 6. There is added to Laws 1955, Chapter 353, a new section to read:

May use other funds. The county is authorized to use any moneys in the county treasury, not set aside for other purposes, to carry out the purposes of this act. If moneys in the said treasury are insufficient, and if sufficient moneys cannot be secured under statutes permitting such county to levy a tax for general revenue purposes, the board of county commissioners may levy an additional tax for the purpose of this act.

Sec. 7. There is added to Laws 1955, Chapter 353, a new section to read:

Bonds, issuance by city. The city of Saint Paul shall have the power to borrow, for the purpose of providing its share of the expense of expanding, enlarging, modifying, and equipping the joint detention facility known as "Boys Totem Town," a sum not to exceed $300,000, or so much thereof as the city council of said city may deem necessary, to defray the city's share of the cost for expansion of, constructing an addition to, or enlargement or modification of said "Boys Totem Town." For the purposes aforesaid, the governing body of said city is hereby given the power and authority to issue and sell, from time to time and without submitting the question of the issuance of the same to a vote of the people, the bonds of said city in the sum and amount of $300,000 or such part thereof as shall be deemed necessary, the proceeds of the sale of such bonds to be used for the purposes specified herein, and to secure the payment of such bonds by pledging the full faith and credit of the city therefor. Such bonds shall be in such form and bear interest at such rate as the said city may prescribe and shall be sold by said city through its governing body to the highest bidder therefor, after notice of the time and the place for the receiving of the bids has been published according to law. Said bonds shall be issued to mature serially, the first installment of which shall become due and payable in not more than three years and the last of which shall become due and payable in not more than thirty years from their date. The proceeds received from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited by the city in a fund to be designated as the detention and corrections authority fund, and the moneys shall be disbursed therefrom for the purposes aforsaid in the same manner as other funds of the city are disbursed, but only for the purposes herein expressed, and according to such other procedural requirements in reference thereto as are set out specifically in this act. Any such bonds issued by such city shall not be included in computing the net indebtedness of such city under any applicable law or charter.

Sec. 8. There is added to Laws 1955, Chapter 353, a new section to read:

Tax levy by city for payment of bonds. The city of Saint Paul shall have the power to levy annually upon all the taxable property in such city, without limitation as to rate or amount, such ad valorem tax as may be necessary to provide for the payment of the interest on such bonds as the same accrues and the payment of the principal thereof in full at maturity. The levy of such tax for such purpose is hereby made the duty of the governing body of said city. The powers granted to said city to levy taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds shall be in addition to all other taxing powers of said city, and shall exist independently of any restrictions upon the power of said city to levy taxes for other purposes.

Sec. 9. There is added to Laws 1955, Chapter 353, a new section to read:

City may use other funds. The city of Saint Paul is hereby authorized to use any moneys in the city treasury, not set aside for other purposes, to carry out the purposes of this act. If moneys in the said treasury are insufficient, and if sufficient moneys cannot be secured under the charter of the city of Saint Paul permitting such city to levy a tax for general revenue purposes, the council of the city of Saint Paul may levy an additional tax for the purposes of this act. The power hereby granted to levy such additional tax shall be in addition to all other taxing powers of the city and it shall exist independently of any restrictions upon the power of the city to levy taxes for other purposes.

Sec. 10. There is added to Laws 1955, Chapter 353, a new section to read:

County auditor, duties. If said board of county commissioners of Ramsey county or the governing body of the city of Saint Paul shall fail to make provision in their annual tax levies for the payment and redemption of said bonds with the interest thereon as the same become due and payable, the county auditor of Ramsey county shall add to the amount of taxes to be raised by said county or city an amount sufficient to provide for the payment and redemption of any such bonds with interest due thereon.

Sec. 11. There is added to Laws 1955, Chapter 353, a new section to read:

Authority to promulgate rules and regulations. The detention and corrections authority is hereby authorized, acting through its representative the chief administrative officer of any joint detention facility or facilities, to promulgate rules and regulations for the proper operation and maintenance of such facility or facilities and the proper care and discipline of all inmates detained in any such facility or facilities. Such rules and regulations may, among other things, provide for the diminution of sentences of inmates of such joint detention facility or facilities for good behavior, but in no event to exceed a total of 5 days for each 30-day sentence.

Sec. 12. There is added to Laws 1955, Chapter 353, a new section to read:

Confinement of inmates from other counties. The detention and corrections authority is hereby authorized to accept inmates for confinement at any joint city and county detention facility or correctional institution when such inmates are committed to such detention facility by order of a judge of any municipality or county beyond the limits of Ramsey county upon such compensation for board, confinement, and maintenance of such inmates being paid to the detention and corrections authority as said authority shall determine. In no event, however, shall such compensation be in an amount less than the actual per diem costs per person confined. The board of county commissioners of any county other than the county of Ramsey or the governing body of any municipality beyond the limits of Ramsey county is hereby authorized to enter into an agreement with the joint detention and corrections authority for the incarceration of prisoners pursuant to agreement between any such board of county commissioners and the detention and corrections authority or agreement between any such municipality and the said detention and corrections authority.

Sec. 13. There is added to Laws 1955, Chapter 353, a new section to read:

Liberal construction. This act shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes, and in the event any section or clause thereof shall be held invalid, the validity of the remaining parts of said act shall be in effect.

Sec. 14. Effective date. This act shall become effective
