

Sec. 3. The sum of $5,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the commissioner of conservation for the purposes of this act from any moneys in the state treasury credited to the game and fish fund to be used to defray the cost and expense of the department of conservation in the acquisition, improvement, development and maintenance of sites for public access to public waters and for lake improvement. None of the money so appropriated shall be expended until the county board authorizes and makes available before June 30, 1965, the sum of $1,500 for the project, which sum shall be paid to the department of conservation and deposited in the state treasury. The county board may accept gifts or contributions for this purpose or may appropriate money from funds of the county which are available for such purposes. Any money so paid to the department of conservation by the county is hereby appropriated to the commissioner for the purposes of this act. All money appropriated by this act shall not lapse but shall remain available until expended.

CHAPTER 672—S. F. No. 1600

An act relating to the state claims commission; designating the name thereof; amending Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 3.66.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 3.66, is amended to read:

3.66 Claims commission. A commission to hear and adjudicate claims against the state is hereby created. Such commission shall be known as the state claims commission. The commission shall consist of six members, three of whom shall be senators appointed by the committee on committees and three shall be members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house. The commission shall be appointed upon the passage of sections 3.66 to 3.84 and any vacancy occurring shall be filled by the appointing power.
