Specifically excluded is a person who is paid by his employer while attending school at the request of his employer. Benefits may continue during any period of four calendar months or less in any 12-month period in which a person does not attend school if the person shows to the satisfaction of the board of trustees that he intends to continue in full-time school attendance immediately after the end of the period. An educational institution is defined so as to permit the payment of benefits to students taking vocational or academic courses in all approved, accredited or licensed schools, colleges, and universities. The board of trustees shall make the final determination of eligibility for benefits if any question arises concerning the approved status of the educational institution which the student attends or proposes to attend.

(d) (e) In the event that a ~~minor dependent~~ person who is receiving a pension as provided above shall marry before the age of 18 22, the pension shall cease as of the date of the marriage.

CHAPTER 792—S. F. No. 1995

An act relating to taxes on lands leased from port authority; amending Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 458.197, as amended.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 458.197, as amended by Laws 1963, Chapter 564, Section 1, is amended to read:

458.197. Port authorities; advances; taxes. Such port authority is hereby granted the power to advance its general fund moneys or credit, or both, without interest, to accomplish the objects and purposes of sections 458.191 to 458.1991, which advances shall be repaid from the sale or lease, or both, of such developed or redeveloped lands, provided, if the money advanced for such development or redevelopment was obtained from the sale of general obligation bonds of the port authority, then such advances shall bear a rate of interest not less than the average annual interest rate on general obligation bonds of the port authority which are outstanding at the time such advances are made. Nothing herein shall prevent the port authority from advancing the money so repaid for the accomplishment of further objects and purposes authorized by such laws, subject to repayment in the same manner. Nothing herein shall affect or impair the obligation of the port authority to use rentals of lands acquired with money so advanced to accumulate and maintain reserves securing the payment of principal and interest on revenue bonds issued to finance port or industrial facilities, when such rentals shall have been pledged for this purpose in accordance with section 458.194. Nothing herein shall require the reimbursement of advances made for the ac-
