

CHAPTER 2—S. F. No. 45

[Not Coded]

An act providing for the renewal of existence of nonprofit corporations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Nonprofit corporations, renewal of existence. Any religious, social, fraternal, charitable, hospital association, or other corporation not organized for pecuniary profit, with or without capital stock, whose period of duration has expired prior to the passage of this act or which may hereafter expire before May 1, 1965, and the same has not been renewed and such corporation has continued to transact its business, or whose assets have not been liquidated and distributed, may renew its corporate existence from the date of its expiration for a further definite term or perpetually from and after the term of its expired period of duration, with the same force and effect as if renewed prior to the expiration of its term of existence, (a) by resolution adopted by a three fourths vote of the stock or members in case of mutual or nonstock corporations, or, (b) by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of the stockholders where the articles of incorporation provided that each stockholder was entitled to but one vote irrespective of the number of shares of stock owned by him, represented at any regular meeting, or at any special meeting called for that purpose, which shall have been clearly specified in the call, or, (c) by resolution adopted by a majority vote of the stockholders in the case of stock corporations organized under and by virtue of Title 3, Chapter 34 of the General Statutes of Minnesota 1866, as amended; and in each such case by taking such further proceedings as may now be provided by law for the renewal of the corporate existence of any such corporation in cases where such renewal is made before the end of its period of duration.

Sec. 2. Extension of time. Such proceedings to obtain such extension shall be taken within two years after the approval of this act.

Sec. 3. Validation. When such proceedings are taken within such period of time, such proceedings shall relate back to the date of expiration of such original corporate period as fixed by its articles of incorporation or by statutory limitation. When such period is extended as provided by this act, any and all corporate acts and contracts done and performed, made and entered into after the expiration of said original period shall be and each is hereby declared to be legal and valid.

Sec. 4. Application limited. This act shall not apply to any
