Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 99.25, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. Game refuges; state park posting. No state game refuge shall become effective as such until the boundaries thereof have been posted with notices consisting of black letters upon a white background at least 12 inches in diameter, except state park posted notices which shall be black letters upon a yellow background. Such signs shall proclaim the area as a state park, or state game refuge, as the case may be, and shall be posted at intervals of not more than 30 rods around the boundaries, as well as at all public road entrances to such areas, except where the boundary of a state game refuge is an international boundary in public waters, or a state boundary line in public waters. In any case where the boundary of a state game refuge extends for more than 30 rods continuously through any stream or body of water, in lieu of placing any such signs in such waters, it shall be sufficient to place such signs, with the following words appended, "Adjacent Waters Included," on the shore of said waters not more than one rod above the high water mark thereof at the intersection of said boundary therewith, and at intervals of not more than 30 rods along the intervening shore. The certificate of the commissioner, the director, or a game warden, refuge supervisor or patrolman, or other authorized officer or employee stating the completion of such posting, or a certified copy of such certificate filed with the commissioner or director shall be prima facie evidence of such posting.
