

Subd. 2. Fur trappers' license numbers; identification. Every person who is required by chapters 97 to 102 to obtain a license for buying or selling any wild animals or other things or substances, or for tanning or dressing raw furs, or mounting specimens of wild animals, shall keep a correct and complete book record in the English language of all transactions and activities covered by the license as carried on by the licensee. Such records shall show from whom obtained and to whom disposed of, giving the post-office addresses, together with the date of receipt, shipping or sale of such animals, a detailed account as to the number and kinds thereof contained in each shipment, purchase, or sale, and the serial number of each seal, tag, or permit, where such seal, tag, or permit is required to be affixed to the wild animals handled, and the trapping license number if the wild animal handled is a protected animal, but if the trapper is exempt from the license requirement, such fact shall be noted. Provided a licensed fur dealer, buying for one employer only, at his established place of business, need not keep a separate book record if the employer shall first notify the commissioner in writing of the fact of such employment and his agreement to identify in his own records each transaction of the employee so excepted. All records required hereby shall be open for inspection by the commissioner, director, or their agents at all reasonable hours. They shall be kept intact for a period of two years after the expiration of any license issued.

CHAPTER 508—H. F. No. 1189

[Not Coded]

An act relating to Crow Wing county; permitting the licensing of motor vehicle junk yards; and providing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Crow Wing county; motor vehicle junk yards; regulation. The county board of Crow Wing county may adopt a resolution which provides for the regulation and licensing of motor vehicle junk yards in accordance with sections 1 to 4.

Sec. 2. County board; resolution. Subdivision 1. Provisions. If a resolution is adopted by the county board in conformity with section 1, it shall contain the provisions found in subdivisions 2 to 5.

Changes or additions indicated by italics, deletions by strikeout.

Subd. 2. Definitions. For the purposes of the motor vehicle junk yard act, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings given them.

(1) A motor vehicle junk yard is any place of storage or deposit, outside the corporate limits of any city or village, and within 1,000 feet of any right-of-way of any state trunk highway, including the interstate highways, whether in connection with another business or not where three or more old or secondhand motor vehicles, or waste or discarded material equal in bulk to three or more motor vehicles, are stored, which are to be resold for used parts or old iron, metal, glass, or other discarded material.

(2) A motor vehicle junk dealer is any person, partnership, or corporation engaged in the operation of a motor vehicle junk yard.

Subd. 3. License. No motor vehicle junk dealer shall operate a motor vehicle junk yard without first obtaining an annual license therefor from the county board. The license shall be issued for the calendar year applied for and shall expire at midnight on December 31 of such year.

The application for a license shall be made in writing to the county board in such manner as the board may prescribe, and shall contain the following information and such other information as the board shall prescribe:

(1) The full name and address of the applicant or applicants.

(2) A legal description of the site upon which the motor vehicle junk yard is to be located.

The annual license fee for each motor vehicle junk yard shall be $5; if issued during the calendar year the fee shall be prorated. The fee shall be paid to the county treasurer and deposited in the general revenue fund of the county.

Subd. 4. Maintenance of junk yard. Every junk yard shall be enclosed by a substantial greenery screen or a fence or wall of uniform height and construction at least eight feet high, constructed of wooden boards and in case of fences, the area of the openings or holes in the texture of the fence shall not exceed the area of the solid or closed portions thereof. Such fences shall at all times be maintained and kept in good repair. No person shall maintain or conduct a junk yard unless the same is enclosed by such fence or wall, unless the junk yard is concealed or substantially concealed to the satisfaction of the county board by topography or natural foliage.

None of the articles commonly found in junk yards shall be allowed to remain upon the grounds of the junk yard for more than 24 hours unless within the buildings or properly fenced enclosures on the premises.

Subd. 5. Penalty. Anyone who violates the provisions of this resolution shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100 or by imprisonment for not more than 90 days.

Sec. 3. Revocation. The county board of Crow Wing county may, upon 30 days written notice and after a hearing has been held thereon, revoke the license of anyone who violates any provision of the motor vehicle junk yard act.

Sec. 4. All junk yards in operation on the date a resolution is adopted in accordance with this act shall, within six months thereafter, be concealed as provided in this act.

Sec. 5. Approval. This act shall become effective after its approval by the members of the board of county commissioners of Crow Wing county and upon compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021.

Approved May 20, 1965.
