CHAPTER 60—H. F. No. 398

[Not Coded]

An act relating to independent school district number 857; providing for the "alley system" of election of members in school elections and the form thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Subdivision 1. Independent school district no. 857; elections; alley system. When two or more members of a school board in independent school district number 857, are to be elected at the same school election, the notice of election shall state the name of each member of the school board whose successor is to be elected. Each member of the school board is deemed to hold a separate non-partisan office. The official ballot shall contain the names of all candidates for each such office in the school district, shall state the number of members of the school board to be elected and the number of candidates for whom an elector may vote, and shall designate each candidacy as "For the office of member of the school board of independent school district number 857, to which (name of member of the school board) was elected for the regular term." The ballots for the school election shall show in the spaces for that purpose the name of the member of the school board whose successor is to be elected at the school election and the number and other description of the particular independent school district and if the member is a candidate to succeed himself the word "incumbent" shall be printed after his name where it appears among
