CHAPTER 687—H. F. No. 773

[Coded]

An act relating to the offering of animals for public service; requiring the registration with the livestock sanitary board of certain of such animals; requiring the licensing with the livestock sanitary board of persons offering such animals for public service; prescribing fees and penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1961, Chapter 35, as amended, by adding a section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Chapter 35, as amended by Laws 1963, Chapter 502, Section 1, and Chapter 6, Section 1, is amended by adding a section to read:

[35.695] Animals; offering for public service; regulation.
Subdivision 1. A person who regularly makes a practice of renting, leasing, loaning, or otherwise offering three or more bulls for public service shall be licensed by the livestock sanitary board and shall register each animal offered for service with the livestock sanitary board before renting, leasing, or loaning such an animal for public service. The board shall issue the license upon receipt of a license fee of $10 and upon compliance with the provisions of this section. The board shall issue a registration certificate for each animal upon receipt of a fee of $1 and upon compliance with the provisions of this section. The license and any registration certificate is in effect for one calendar year from the date of issuance. All fees collected by the board under this section shall be deposited in the general revenue fund.

Subd. 2. Applications for licensing and registration shall be made upon forms prescribed by the livestock sanitary board. Applications for registration shall be accompanied by a statement from a licensed veterinarian relating to the physical condition of the animal, which statement shall contain such information as the board may require by rule or regulation promulgated in the manner provided by law. The board shall state on the registration certificate any fact relating to the physical condition of the animal which it considers material to the breeding qualities of the animal. A person offering a bull for public service shall display the registration certificate prominently at the location where the animals are offered for service. The board shall provide, by rule and regulation promulgated in the manner provided by law, a method of identification for animals registered with the board, which identification shall appear on an animal offered for public service. Upon transfer of ownership of an animal registered with the board, a registration certificate may be transferred by the board upon satisfactory proof of change of ownership and upon payment of a fee of fifty cents.

Subd. 3. Before offering an animal registered under this act for service at a new location, the animal offered for service shall be inspected by a licensed veterinarian, who shall report his findings to the livestock sanitary board. The inspection shall include such tests or examinations as may be required by the livestock sanitary board pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated in the manner provided by law. In the case of bulls, the examination shall include a test for brucellosis.

Subd. 4. No bull found to have brucellosis shall be offered for public service. The livestock sanitary board, pursuant to rule or regulation promulgated in the manner provided by law, may prohibit the offering of a bull for public service which has an infectious or contagious disease.

Subd. 5. A person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. The livestock sanitary board may, after notice and hearing, suspend or revoke a license or registration certificate issued pursuant to this section if the person to whom the license or certificate is issued fails to comply with the provisions of this section.

Sec. 2. This act takes effect on January 1, 1966. However, prior to the effective date the livestock sanitary board may prescribe forms, promulgate rules, and accept applications for licensing and registration which license or registration may not take effect before the effective date of this act.

Approved May 25, 1965.
