

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 633.01, is amended to read:

633.01 Justices of the peace; jurisdiction. Justices of the peace have power and jurisdiction, throughout their respective counties, as follows:

(1) To cause to be kept all laws made for the preservation of the peace;

(2) To cause to come before them, or any of them, persons who break the peace, and commit them to jail, or bail them, as the case may require;

(3) To arrest and cause to come before them, persons who attempt to break the peace, persons who keep houses of ill-fame, or frequenters of the same, or common prostitutes, and compel them to give security for their good behavior, and to keep the peace;

(4) To cause to come before them persons who are charged with committing any criminal offense and commit them to jail, or bail them, as the case may require; provided that no justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction of any offenses committed within the limits of any city or village wherein a municipal court is organized and existing, but such offenses, otherwise cognizable by justices of the peace, and those arising under the charter, ordinances, or by-laws of the city or village shall be examined or tried by the municipal court therein existing; provided that this section shall not apply to any cities or villages having justice of the peace courts established by home rule charter, nor to territory within one half mile of the outer limits of the state fair grounds.

Approved May 25, 1965.

CHAPTER 727—H. F. No. 1694

[Not Coded]

An act providing for the number of trustees to be elected in the village of North St. Paul under certain conditions.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. North St. Paul, village of; trustees. In the event that the municipal commission created by Minnesota Statutes,

Changes or additions indicated by italics, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.

Section 414.01, shall order an election to be held for the purpose of determining if the town of Northdale shall be annexed to the village of North St. Paul, and such vote shall be in the affirmative, then the board of trustees of such municipality shall consist of six trustees and a mayor. Two of these trustees shall be elected from and reside within the former boundaries of the former town of Northdale, and four of these trustees shall be elected from and reside within the boundaries of the balance of the village of North St. Paul except as otherwise provided herein. The mayor shall be elected from the whole of such municipality. Such provisions shall remain in effect for a period of ten years, or until such time that the provisions herein be changed by at least a four-fifths vote of the board of trustees.

Sec. 2. When the population of the former town of Northdale equals or exceeds the population of the former village of North St. Paul, within the said period of ten years, the village trustees shall reapportion upon the petition of two or more trustees. For the purpose of this section the population shall be determined by federal census or actual census taken by the board of trustees upon request of two or more trustees.

Sec. 3. If after the creation of the new village should any other municipality or part thereof be annexed to the new village and should such area have a population in excess of one-sixth of the total population of the total areas of the former town of Northdale and the former village of North St. Paul, then such newly annexed municipality or part thereof shall be entitled to one additional trustee for each such one-sixth population which trustee shall be added to the board of trustees of the village.

If the population does not exceed such one-sixth apportionment then for purposes of the election of the aforesaid six trustees the municipality or part thereof annexed shall be considered a part of the former town of Northdale or a part of the former village of North St. Paul depending upon which area such municipality or part thereof be adjacent or contiguous to.

Sec. 4. This act takes effect after its approval by the board of supervisors of the town of Northdale and by the governing body of the village of North St. Paul and upon compliance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021.

Approved May 25, 1965.

Changes or additions indicated by italics, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.