

request therefor, containing his or its name and address. For a period of two years after the filing of such request the commissioner, at or prior to the time of any publication, shall mail to such person or association a copy of such proposed regulations. Each such proposed regulation, if theretofore approved by the attorney general as to form and legality, shall become final and effective ~~ten~~ 30 days after the publication thereof. Any employer, employee, or other person whose interest is or may be affected thereby may object to any such proposed regulation within ten days after publication thereof by filing with the commissioner a petition setting forth the grounds of objection to the proposed regulation and request a hearing thereon, whereupon a hearing shall thereafter be had before the commissioner or his duly authorized representative at a time and place designated by the commissioner or such representative after due notice of said hearing has been served by registered mail, upon the objecting party or parties not less than ten days before said hearing. In the event that the commissioner elects to amend such regulation after such hearing, then such amended regulation shall be filed with the secretary of state and a copy thereof mailed to each of the persons and associations who have filed a request for copies of proposed regulations as provided herein, and such amended regulation shall become effective five days after such filing and mailing. Judicial notice of any rule, regulation or order duly filed or published under the provisions of this subdivision shall be taken.

Sec. 19. The provisions of this act shall become effective on July 1, 1966, except Sections 7 and 8, which shall become effective on January 1, 1966.

Approved May 25, 1965.
