CHAPTER 77—H. F. No. 400

An act relating to declarations of trust; amending Minnesota Statutes 1961, Sections 318.01 and 318.02.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 318.01, is amended to read:

318.01    Declarations of trust; organization; scope of business. Two or more natural persons, corporations, partnerships or other unincorporated associations, whether residents of this state or not, may organize and associate themselves together for the purpose of transacting business in this state under what is commonly designated or known as a "declaration of trust" or "business trust"; provided, however, no such association shall ever be permitted or authorized to transact in this state any business of insurance except the kind of business of insurance specified in Minnesota Statutes, Section 60.29, Subdivision 1 (7), and all acts amendatory thereof; and further provided, however, no such association shall ever be permitted or authorized to transact a banking or ~~security~~ surety business, of any kind, in this state.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 318.02, is amended to read:

318.02    Filing a declaration of trust and issuance of certificate to association. The term "declaration of trust" as used in this section means the declaration of trust, trust indenture, contract of custodianship or other instrument pursuant to which such association is organized. Every such association hereafter organized for the purpose of transacting business in this state shall, prior to transacting any business in this state, file in the office of the secretary of state a true and correct copy of the "declaration of trust" under which the association proposes to conduct its business, which copy shall be sworn to, as being a true and correct copy, by the chairman of the board of trustees named in such "declaration of trust" or by one of the parties to the "declaration of trust". The "declaration of trust" may provide that the duration of such association shall be perpet-
