has expired without the renewal thereof, and legalizing acts and contracts of such corporations made or done and performed subsequent to the expiration of said corporation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Cemetery corporations; corporate existence, renewal. Any cemetery corporation heretofore organized under the laws of this state, having unissued capitol stock, whose period of duration expired on or prior to January 16, 1952 and the same has not been renewed and such corporation has continued or continues to transact its business, or whose assets have not been liquidated and distributed, may, reorganize as now provided in Minnesota Statutes 1961, Sections 306.58 to 306.62, or Section 306.68, and renew its corporate existence from date of its expiration to further definite term or perpetually from and after its expired period of duration with the same force and effect as if renewed prior to the expiration of its existence.

Sec. 2. Limitation of time. Such proceedings to obtain such extension shall be taken within two years after the approval of this act.

Sec. 3. Proceedings to relate back. When such proceedings are taken within such period of time, such proceedings shall relate back to the date of the expiration of such original corporate period, as fixed by its articles of incorporation or by statutory limitation, and when such period is extended as provided by this act, any and all corporate acts and contracts done and performed, made and entered into after the expiration of said original period, shall be and each is hereby declared to be legal and valid.

Sec. 4. Application. This act shall not apply to any corporation, the charter of which has been declared forfeited by the final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction of this state or to any corporation as to which there is pending action or proceedings in any of the courts of this state, for the forfeiture of its charter, nor shall this act affect any action or proceedings now pending in any of the courts of this state in relation to any corporation described in section 1.
