

able by the Minneapolis fire department relief association pursuant to law for the year said pension costs are to be paid; less the proceeds or moneys paid into the special fund of such association pursuant to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1961, Chapter 69, or any other provision of law, during said year. Said tax shall in no event exceed two mills. Should the estimated payments from the Minneapolis fire department relief association fund be of such amount as to require a levy in excess of $1\frac{3}{4}$ mills; The contributions by firemen provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Section 69.361, paragraph 1, shall in such year be increased from $3\frac{1}{2}$ percent to $4\frac{1}{2}$ ~~$5\frac{1}{2}$~~ percent. Should the estimated payments from the Minneapolis fire department relief association fund be of such amount that the two mill levy is insufficient to enable them to meet such payments; then the contributions by firemen provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Section 69.361, paragraph 1, shall in such year be increased from $4\frac{1}{2}$ percent to 5 percent. The tax so levied shall be transmitted with other tax levies to the auditor of the county in which the city of Minneapolis is located and shall be collected and payment thereof enforced when and in like manner as state and county taxes are paid. All moneys collected under such levy shall be credited to the special fund of the association. This levy shall not be considered a part of the tax levy under any limitation in the charter of the city of Minneapolis, but shall be in addition to any existing charter or statutory limitation.

Sec. 2. This act shall become effective only after its approval by the governing body of the city of Minneapolis and upon compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021.

Approved May 24, 1967.
