and by the justice if in justice court, in a penal sum at least double the amount claimed in the garnishee summons, or, if the value of the property garnished is less than such amount, then in double such value, conditioned to pay any judgment recovered against him in the action, or so much thereof as shall equal such value. Thereupon the judge or justice shall make an order discharging the garnishment and releasing the property. The order becomes effective upon filing the same with the bond and serving a copy on the garnishee.

Subd. 2.　If a party whose property has been garnished and who has given a corporate surety bond as provided in subdivision 1 prevails in the action, he shall be allowed the cost of the premium for such bond as a disbursement. In case of recovery against a party whose property has been garnished and who has given a corporate surety bond for the release thereof as provided in subdivision 1, if the value of the property for which such bond was given exceeds double the amount recovered, such party shall be allowed as a disbursement that part of the cost of the premium for such bond attributable to such excess, to be determined by the court and offset against the judgment. If the amount so determined exceeds the amount for which the prevailing party would otherwise be entitled to judgment, judgment for the deficiency shall be awarded against him in favor of the party whose property was garnished.
