An act relating to Ramsey county; permitting it to insure against liability under the workmen's compensation act with respect to certain employees.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Ramsey county; workmen's compensation. The county of Ramsey may insure with an insurance carrier its liability to pay workmen's compensation with respect to personnel subject to the authority of its sheriff who are engaged in the furnishing of police service to a city, village, town, or borough pursuant to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 436.05. Such insurance shall be governed by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 176. The failure of the county of Ramsey to insure with an insurance carrier its liability to pay workmen's compensation to any other employee or group of employees shall not preclude exercise of the authority conferred by this act.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect upon its approval by the governing body of the county of Ramsey and upon compliance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021.

Approved May 10, 1967.
