(c) Average salary in no case shall exceed $7,200 per year. For each year subsequent to June 30, 1965, average salary for a member for the purpose of determining his retirement annuity means his average salary for which he has made contributions to the retirement fund.

Subd. 3. Computing normal annuity. The normal annuity for any member shall be computed by multiplying his average salary upon which deductions were based times two percent per year of allowable service. If the member was so employed before July 1, 1961 and reach 60 years of age and had more than 30 years' allowable service at such time, each year of allowable service acquired by the member shall be computed in determining his normal annuity until such member reaches the age of 60. If the member was so employed before July 1, 1961, and had less than 30 years of allowable service when he reached age 60, each year of allowable service acquired by such member shall be computed in determining his normal annuity not to exceed 30 years of such allowable service. The year any member reaches age 60 may be computed in full in determining the normal annuity provided herein.

Subd. 4. Early retirement. After separation from state service, any state police officer who has attained the age of at least 55 years and who receives credit for not less than 20 years of allowable service as a state police officer, is entitled upon application to a retirement annuity which shall be equal to his normal annuity reduced by one half a percent for each month that he is under age 58 at the time of retirement.

Age when disabled	Supplementary benefits
Under 51	$50
51	$44
52	$38
53	$32
54	$26

56	$12
57	$ 6

Subd. 4 3. Disability annuities. The deferred annuity of section 352.22, as it applies to members of the state police officers retirement fund, shall commence at age 58 and shall be computed in the manner provided in section 352A.06 on the basis of allowable

Disability as used in this subdivision means total and permanent disability as certified to by at least two licensed and practicing physicians selected by the officers of the fund. The member shall submit to an examination by such physicians prior to the determination by the officers of his eligibility for disability benefits and at such intervals thereafter as determined by the officers of the fund. If any examination indicates that the annuitant is no longer physically or mentally incapacitated, or is able to engage in gainful occupation but refused to work, payments of disability annuity shall be discontinued.

Should any disability annuitant refuse to submit to a medical examination as herein provided, payments from the fund shall thereupon be discontinued until his withdrawal of such refusal, and should his refusal continue for one year, all rights of the member to any disability annuity shall be terminated.

Should the annuitant become able to resume other gainful employment and his earnings therefrom be less than his salary at date of disability or the salary currently paid for position held at time of disability, the board shall continue the disability benefit in an amount which when added to such earnings does not exceed his salary at date of disability or salary currently paid for position held at time of disability, whichever is lower, provided the disability benefit in such case does not exceed the disability benefit originally allowed. The annuitant shall furnish detailed financial statements as required by the board of trustees.

Subd. 4. Termination of disability benefit. The disability benefit paid to a person hereunder shall terminate when he reaches age 60 if he is still totally and permanently disabled. At that time he shall be deemed to be on retirement status.

Subd. 5. Effect of workmen's compensation on disability annuity. The disability annuity herein provided shall be reduced by any amounts received or receivable by a member from the employer under applicable workmen's compensation laws.

Subd. 5 6. Survivor's annuity. The survivor's annuity of section 352.117, subdivision 2, shall be paid in behalf of members

If, at the time of death, the member was under 58 years of age, his normal annuity shall be reduced one half percent for each month that he was under age 58. This annuity shall be paid when the surviving spouse reaches the age of 62 and shall terminate upon remarriage. The surviving spouse has the option, if qualified, to receive the annuity provided in ~~section 352.117, subdivision 1, this act~~ or the benefit provided in ~~section 352.117, subdivision 2 this subdivision~~, but not both.

Subd. 6 7. Line of duty survivor's benefits. If a member is killed in the line of duty, survivor's benefits shall be paid even though the member did not have 18 months of allowable service credit at the date of death.
