authorizing the commissioner of corrections to contract with the U.S. attorney general for transfer to and confinement in federal correctional institutions certain inmates of the state prison or the state reformatories; amending Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 243.51.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 243.51, is amended to read:

243.51 Prisoners; transfers to other jurisdictions. Every convict duly committed to the prison by authority of the United States shall be received, maintained, and disciplined in compliance with his sentence, in the same manner as other prisoners therein, upon payment made by the United States of 40 cents per day, the cost of all discharge clothing furnished, the expense of every additional guard required, and $1 per month for the use of the convict.

Subdivision 1. United States prisoners; prisoners from other states. The commissioner of corrections is hereby authorized to contract with the United States attorney general and with the proper officials of other states for the custody, care, subsistence, education, treatment and training of persons convicted of criminal offenses constituting felonies in the courts of the United States or other states of the United States. Such contracts shall provide for reimbursing the state of Minnesota for all costs or other expenses involved. Funds received under such contracts shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the institution in which such persons may be confined. Any prisoner transferred to the state of Minnesota pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to the terms and conditions of his original sentence as if he were serving the same within the confines of the state in which the conviction and sentence was had or in the custody of the United States attorney general. Nothing herein shall deprive such inmate of his right to parole or his rights to legal process in the courts of this state.

Subd. 2. The commissioner of corrections may transfer to the custody of the United States attorney general any inmate of the state prison or the state reformatory for women whose presence is seriously detrimental to the internal discipline and well-being of the state prison or reformatory, or whose personal safety cannot be reasonably secured therein or in any other state correctional institution, provided the attorney general of the United States accept such transfer. Such transfer shall be accomplished in the manner prescribed by Title 18, Section 5003 of the United States code and acts amendatory thereof, and the commissioner of corrections may execute such contracts as therein provided. The reimbursement of the federal government for all costs and expenses incurred for the care, custody, subsistence, education, treatment and training of such transferee shall be paid from the appropriation for the operation of the state prison or state reformatory for women.

The chief executive officer of the transferring institution shall attach to such contract a duly certified copy of the warrant of commitment under which such inmate is held, together with copies of such other commitment papers as are required by section 243.49, and such other data relating to the character and condition of such inmates as he may deem necessary or may be required by the federal prison authorities. Such copy of the warrant of commitment and accompanying papers shall constitute sufficient authority for the United States to hold such inmate on behalf of the state of Minnesota.

Any inmate so transferred under this subdivision shall be subject to the terms and conditions of his original sentence as if he were serving the same within the confines of the institution from which transferred. Nothing herein contained shall deprive such inmate of his right to parole or his rights to legal process in the courts of this state.

Approved May 12, 1967.
