The classified service shall include all other offices or employments now existing or hereafter created in said counties and county agencies, and all officers and employees not expressly placed in the unclassified service by the terms of this act, notwithstanding any other provisions in any existing law to the contrary. It shall include officers and employees of such county agencies, if the funds for such agencies are provided in whole or in part by such county. For the purpose of clarity it shall include officers, except as excluded in subdivision (c) of section 6 above, and employees of joint city hall and court house committees and all other agencies supported and controlled in whole or in part by the said counties, or jointly by said counties and any city of the first class located therein. All employees in the classified service shall be placed in a graded division unless the county board establish an ungraded division. The ungraded division, if one is established, shall include all employees in the construction trades who are engaged in the work of repair, alteration or construction of buildings for which trades there is a generally established and recognized scale of wages within the county. The graded division shall include all other employees in the classified service.

Any permanent employee of the county welfare board who, on the effective date of this act, is holding a position which is placed in the classified service under the provisions of this act shall be subject to and protected by the provisions of this act except that the provisions of section 4, subsection (a) (13) of Chapter 513, Laws of 1941, shall not be applicable to positions under the county welfare board. All other county welfare board employees in positions in the classified service shall be subject to and protected by this act and said chapter 513, as amended, subject to a general classification pursuant to 5 (e) of said chapter 513. Employees who have not been in the service of the county welfare board for a period of six months or more immediately preceding the date when this act becomes effective as to such employees shall be on probation until they have served six months as employees.

If any joint county or city agency, including boards, commissions or committees, is hereafter established by statute or created pursuant to statute, which would eliminate the position or employment of any person employed under civil service by either such city or such county, such employee shall become an employee of said newly created agency and within the classified service of the county as herein defined. The compensation, seniority, vacation or sick-leave rights or any other rights of such employee shall not be diminished thereby.
