

corporated in such ordinance by reference shall be as much a part of the ordinance as if they had been set out in full therein.

Sec. 2. [375.52] Revision and codification. Any county may revise and codify and print in book, pamphlet or newspaper form any general and special laws, ordinances, resolutions and rules in force in the county. Such codification shall be a sufficient publication of any ordinance included in it and not previously published in a newspaper if a substantial quantity of the codification is printed for general distribution to the public. A notice that copies of the codification are available in the office of the county auditor shall be published in the official county newspaper for at least two successive weeks. The county board is authorized to make a reasonable charge for the cost of printing and distribution of ordinances or a codification of ordinances.

Sec. 3. [375.53] Violations of ordinances; penalties. The county board shall have power to declare that the violation of any ordinance shall be a penal offense and to prescribe penalties therefor. Such penalties shall not exceed those permitted for conviction of a misdemeanor as defined by law.

Sec. 4. [375.54] Prosecutions under ordinance. Subdivision 1. All prosecutions for violation of county ordinances shall be brought by the county attorney in the name of the county upon complaint and warrant as in other criminal cases.

Sec. 5. [375.55] Disposition of fines recovered for ordinance violations. All fines, forfeitures, and penalties recovered for the violation of any county ordinance shall be paid into the county treasury. Every court or officer receiving such moneys, on or before the tenth day after the last day of the month in which such moneys were collected, shall make return thereof under oath and be entitled to duplicate receipts for the amounts paid. One of the receipts shall be filed with the county auditor.

CHAPTER 699—S. F. No. 1413

An act relating to insurance; permitting an agent to direct that his commissions be paid to a partnership or corporation that employs him; amending Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 60.81.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Changes or additions indicated by italics, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 60.81, is amended to read:

CHAPTER 700—S. F. No. 1358

[Coded]

An act relating to certain elective state officers; providing retirement allowances to constitutional officers in the executive branch, railroad and warehouse commissioners, and survivor benefits to their widows; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 490.025, Subdivisions 7 and 9.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. [352C.01] Constitutional officer; retirement; legislative finding and intent. The legislature finds that service to Minnesota in the capacity of a constitutional officer or commissioner as defined in this act constitutes a unique contribution to the state and that such service is dissimilar to any other public employment. The legislature further finds that service as a constitutional officer or commissioner for a period of ten years or longer deprives the individual so serving of normal opportunities to establish retirement benefits in his usual vocational pursuit and justifies adoption of special retirement provisions. The provisions of this act are intended by the legislature to reflect the unique nature of service as a constitutional officer or commissioner and to have due regard for the unusual disruption of normal retirement planning that such service entails.

Sec. 2. [352C.02] Definitions. Subdivision 1. The following terms for the purposes of this act shall be given the meanings herein ascribed to them.
