CHAPTER 743—H. F. No. 2149

[Not Coded]

An act relating to any commission established by ordinance in Minneapolis to regulate in the field of civil rights; granting certain powers and providing for judicial review.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minneapolis, city of; Minneapolis Fair Employment Practice Commission. The Minneapolis Fair Employment Practice Commission established by an ordinance by the city of Minneapolis, in addition to all powers now possessed by it, shall have and is hereby granted the power and authority (a) to examine witnesses, administer oaths, take testimony, and require the production for examination of any books or papers relating to any matter under investigation or in question before the commission and (b) to issue orders requiring respondents to cease and desist from unlawful discriminatory practice and to take such affirmative action, including (but not limited to) hiring, reinstatement, or upgrading of employees, with or without back pay, restoration to membership in any respondent labor organization, or the extension of full, equal, and unsegregated accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges to all persons as in the judgment of such commission will effectuate the purposes of the ordinance, and including a requirement for report of the manner of compliance, and shall be granted the power and authority to seek injunctive relief.

Sec. 2. Any complainant, respondent, or other person aggrieved by such order of the commission may obtain judicial review thereof, and the commission may obtain an order of court for its enforcement in a proceeding as provided in this section. Such proceeding shall be brought in the district court of the state within any county wherein the unlawful discriminatory practice which is the subject of the commission's order occurs or wherein any person required in the order to cease and desist from an unlawful discriminatory practice or to take other affirmative action, resides or transacts business. Such proceedings shall be initiated by the filing of a petition in such court, together with a written transcript of the record upon the hearing before the commission, and the issuance and service of a notice of motion returnable at a special term of such court. Thereupon the court shall have jurisdiction of the proceeding and of the questions determined therein, and shall have power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper, and to make and enter upon the pleadings, testimony, and proceedings set forth in such transcript an order enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the commission. No objection that has not been urged before the commission shall be considered by the court unless the failure or neglect to urge such objection shall be excused because of extraordinary circumstances. Any party may move the court to remit the case to the commission in the interests of justice for the purpose of adducing additional specified and material evidence and seeking findings thereon, provided he shows reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce such evidence before the commission. The findings of the commission as to the facts shall be conclusive if supported by sufficient evidence on the record considered as a whole. All such proceedings shall be heard and determined by the court and by any appellate court as expeditiously as possible and with lawful precedence over other matters. The jurisdiction of the district court shall be exclusive and its judgment and order shall be final, subject to review by the supreme court in the same manner and form and with the same effect as provided in the rules of civil procedure for appeals from a final order in a special proceeding. The commission's copy of the testimony shall be available at all reasonable times to all parties for examination without cost and for the purposes of judicial review of the order of the commission. The appeal shall be heard on the record without requirement of printing. The commission may appear in court by any attorney. A proceeding under this section when instituted by any complainant, respondent, or other person aggrieved must be instituted within 30 days after service of the order of the commission.

Sec. 3. This act shall become effective only after its approval
