

sion 6. Such party is not liable to any person other than the employee or his dependents for any damages resulting from the injury or death.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 176.061, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. Costs, attorney fees, expenses. As between employer and employee or his dependents, in all actions governed by this subdivision the employer shall bear that proportion of the costs, reasonable attorney's fees; and reasonable expenses incurred in making collection from and enforcing liability against the party other than the employer which the amount claimed by the employer for deduction from; or to be retained against; compensation payable bears to the whole amount recovered from such other party. The proceeds of all actions for damages or settlement thereof under Minnesota Statutes, Section 176.061, received by the injured employee or his dependents or by the employer as provided by subdivision 5, shall be divided as follows:

(a) After deducting the reasonable cost of collection, including but not limited to attorneys fees and burial expense in excess of the statutory liability, then

(b) One-third of the remainder shall in any event be paid to the injured employee or his dependents, without being subject to any right of subrogation.

(c) Out of the balance remaining, the employer shall be reimbursed for all compensation paid under Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 176.

(d) Any balance remaining shall be paid to the employee or his dependents, and shall be a credit to employer for any compensation which employer is obligated to pay, but has not paid, and for any compensation that such employer shall be obligated to make in the future.

There shall be no reimbursement or credit to employer for interest or penalties.

Approved April 25, 1969.
