CHAPTER 368—H. F. No. 1416

An act relating to certain diocesan corporations; and permitting such corporations to establish cemeteries; amending Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 315.16.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 315.16, is amended to read:

315.16 Diocesan corporations; cemeteries; formation; powers. Subdivision 1. The bishop of any such diocese may associate with him the vicar general and chancellor of such diocese, and they, or a majority of them, shall designate and associate with them two other members of such religious denomination, residents of such diocese, and upon adopting, signing, and acknowledging, in duplicate, a certificate reciting the fact of such association and selection of such two persons, and containing the name, general purpose, and location of such corporation, and filing and recording the same, as provided in section 315.15, the said five persons and their successors shall become a corporation, with power to take, hold, receive, and dispose of any real or personal property for the use and benefit of such diocese, and for the use and benefit of the religious denomination therein creating such diocese, and to administer the temporalities of such diocese.

cese, to establish and conduct schools, seminaries, colleges, or any benevolent, charitable, religious, or missionary work or society of such religious denomination within such diocese, with all the rights, powers, and privileges enumerated in this section and in section 315.15.

Subd. 2. The persons who may hold the offices, respectively, of bishop, vicar general, and chancellor of such religious denomination within and for such diocese, and their successors in office forever, shall, by virtue of their respective offices, always be members of such corporation, but on ceasing to hold such office the corporate membership of each shall at once cease. The other two incorporators and their successors in office shall always be selected and appointed by the bishop, vicar general, and chancellor of such diocese, or a majority of them, for the same term and in the same manner as provided in section 315.15 for the selection and appointment of the two laymen by the bishop, vicar general, and pastor, and all vacancies shall be filled by the three first named corporators. Every such appointment shall be in writing and entered of record in the minutes of the corporation, and such appointees shall be members of such religious ~~corporation~~ denomination and residents of the diocese of its location. Any corporator so selected may at any time resign, and such resignation and its acceptance shall always be entered on the minutes of the corporation. In case of a vacancy in the office of bishop of such diocese or the temporary suspension of his authority to act, the provisions of section 315.15 in reference to such a case shall in all respects apply.

Subd. 3. Any member of either corporation specified in this section and in section 315.15 may, by a writing signed by him, appoint a proxy to represent and act for him, and in his name and stead to vote at any meeting of such corporation.

Subd. 4. A religious corporation may be formed in the manner set forth herein, for the purpose of establishing one or more cemeteries in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 307.01.

Approved May 12, 1969.
