Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 256.12, Subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. Public welfare; dependent children; unemployed fathers. "Dependent child," as used in sections 256.72 to 256.87, means a child under the age of 18 years, or a child under the age of 19 years who is regularly attending as a full time student at a high school, college, or university, or regularly attending as a full time student in a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit him for gainful employment, who is found to be deprived of parental support or care by reason of the death, continued absence from the home, ~~or~~ physical or mental incapacity of a parent, or who is a child of an unemployed father as that term is defined by the commissioner of public welfare, such definition to be consistent with, and not to exceed minimum standards established by the congress of the United States and the secretary of health, education and welfare, and whose relatives, liable under the law for his support are not able to provide adequate care and support of such child, and who is living with his father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, stepfather, stepmother, stepbrother, stepsister, uncle, aunt, first cousin, nephew, or niece in a place of residence maintained by one or more of such relatives as his or their home.

The term "dependent child" shall also mean a child who has been removed from the home of a relative after a judicial determination that continuance in the home would be contrary to the welfare and best interests of the child and whose further placement and care is the responsibility of the state or county agency and who has been placed in a foster home or a private licensed child care institution and who has received aid under sections 256.72 to 256.87 during the month in which the judicial proceedings for removal were initiated.

Sec. 2. This act shall become effective July 1, 1970.

Approved June 6, 1969.
