

(3) To encourage a distribution of population and a mode of land utilization that will facilitate the economical and adequate provision of transportation, roads, water supply, drainage, sanitation, education, recreation, or other public requirements;

(4) To lessen governmental expenditures;

(5) To conserve and develop natural resources, including but not limited to the conservation of shorelands, as defined in section 1 of this act;

(6) To prevent soil erosion;

(7) To foster the state's agricultural or other industries;

(8) To protect the food supply;

(9) To prevent waste.

These regulations shall be made with a reasonable consideration, among other things, to the character of the district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1967, Chapter 396, is amended by adding a section to read:

[396.051] Shoreland regulations; powers of towns. Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 396.05, the approval of town boards is not required for ordinances regulating the conservation of shorelands. However, this section does not prohibit a town from adopting or continuing in force, by ordinance, regulations of shorelands which are more restrictive than those required by the county ordinance.
