

(5) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(6) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not have equity in real property in excess of $15,000; and

(7) Who, if single, does not have more than $750 in cash or liquid assets or, if married, whose cash or liquid assets do not exceed $1,000 plus $150 for each additional legal dependent; and

(8) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of ~~$1,620~~ $1,740 for a single person, or ~~$2,220~~ $2,424 for two family members (man and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus ~~$408~~ $516 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application (or during the 3 months prior to the month of application) incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In such excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred.

Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, both excess income and income over and above that required for justified needs are to be applied to the cost of institutional care; and

(9) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from health and accident insurance policies on the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children.
