CHAPTER 963—H. F. No. 2964

[Not Coded]

An act relating to limitations of actions involving title to real property conveyed to a city for park, recreational, or educational purposes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Property conveyed for parks; limitation of action. Where real property was conveyed to a city after August 1, 1960, and before December 31, 1960, for use for public park, recreational, or educational purposes and deeds therefor recorded in the office of the register of deeds or filed in the office of the registrar of titles in the county in which the land is located prior to December 31, 1960, and the real property so conveyed has not been used for such purposes by the city or the public, and the city subsequent thereto quitclaimed and conveyed the same real property to the grantors or their assigns, no action may be commenced by any person, partnership, or corporation or by the state or any political subdivision of the state after September 1, 1969, to enforce any right or claim of right to the use of such property for any public purpose or to compel such property to be devoted to such public purpose.

Sec. 2. Nothing herein contained shall affect any action now pending involving real property conveyed as described in section 1.

Approved June 4, 1969.
