

Subd. 2. JUVENILES; ASSIGNMENT TO DETENTION FACILITY. If the child is not released as provided in subdivision 1, the person taking the child into custody shall notify the court as soon as possible of the detention of the child and the reasons for detention. The child may be detained in a place of detention specified in section 260.175 for not longer than 24 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, after the taking into custody unless an order for detention, specifying the reason for detention, is signed by the judge or referee. No child may be held longer than 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays or holidays, after the taking into custody unless a petition has been filed and the judge or referee determines that the child shall remain in custody. Where a child is to be detained in a jail beyond 48 hours, the judge or referee, in accordance with rules and procedures established by the commissioner of corrections, shall notify the commissioner of the place of such continued detention and the reasons therefor. The commissioner shall thereupon offer the services of his department to assist the court in the relocation of such child in appropriate detention facilities within the county or elsewhere in the state, or in determining suitable alternatives. If approved regional juvenile detention facilities exist, the commissioner shall have the power to direct that the child be detained in the nearest approved regional juvenile detention facility. If the court refers the matter to the prosecuting authority in accordance with the provisions of section 260.125, notice to the commissioner shall not be required. The parent, guardian, or custodian of the child shall be notified of the place of detention as soon as possible.
