CHAPTER 398—H.F.No.2078

[Coded in Part]

An act relating to motor vehicle retail installment sales; providing penalties for violations and providing for powers of the commissioner of banks as administrator; amending Minnesota Statutes 1969, Section 168.75, and Chapter 168, by adding sections.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1969, Chapter 168, is amended by adding a section to read:

[168.705] MOTOR VEHICLE INSTALLMENT SALES; REGULATION; EXAMINATIONS. For the purpose of discovering violations of sections 168.66 to 168.77 or securing information lawfully required by him hereunder, the administrator may, at any time, either personally or by a person or persons duly designated by him, investigate the conditional sales contracts and business related to the conditional sales contracts and examine the books, accounts, records, and files used therein, of every licensee and of every person who shall be engaged in the business of a sales finance company, whether the person shall act as principal or agent, or under or without the authority of sections 168.66 to 168.77. For that purpose, the administrator and his duly designated representative shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of all such persons. The administrator and all persons duly designated by him shall have authority to require the attendance of and to examine, under oath, all persons whomsoever whose testimony he may require relative to the conditional sales contract or the business or to the subject matter of any examination, investigation, or hearing.

The administrator shall make such an examination of the affairs, business, office, and records of each licensee at least once each year. Each licensee shall pay to the administrator such amount as may be required under Minnesota Statutes, Section 46.131, and the administrator may maintain an action for the recovery of such costs in any court of competent jurisdiction.
