CHAPTER 400—H.F.No.2263

[Coded]

An act relating to health; providing for the filing of a notice of death and additional information in lieu of a death certificate in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. [144.205] VITAL STATISTICS; DEATH IN ARMED FORCES; NOTICE; FILING. Any person receiving notice from any branch of the armed services of the United States of the death of any person serving as a member of such armed services may file such notice of death with the local registrar of the district in which the deceased last resided. The person filing such notice of death shall submit by sworn affidavit to the local registrar as much additional information relative to the deceased as would be otherwise required on a death certificate as is available to such person. The notice of death together with the additional information, if any, submitted shall be deemed a death certificate and may be recorded and used for any purpose for which a valid death certificate may be used. The term death certificate as used in the Minnesota Statutes shall be deemed to include a notice of death together with the additional information submitted therewith as prescribed by this section.
