

supplemental benefit provided for in section 354.55, subdivision 6, for any annuitant or class of annuitants, the excess of the amount paid over the amount which the reserves would support must be recovered by withholding the amount of any future increases in annuity payments to which the annuitant or class of annuitants would be otherwise entitled until the sum of the amounts withheld equals such accumulated excess. After any deficiency is recovered in full, the annuity will be increased on the basis of the cumulative ratio of assets to reserves currently applicable to such annuitant or class of annuitants. Exact procedures to be followed in making determinations as to the amounts to be received by persons commencing to receive benefits during the various fiscal years shall be determined by the board of trustees of the teachers retirement association in accordance with accepted actuarial and accounting practices.

(4) Notwithstanding section 356.18, increases in annuity payments pursuant to this section will be made automatically unless written notice is filed by the annuitant with the teachers retirement association board requesting that the increase shall not be made.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1969, Section 355.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. After July 1, 1971, any member of the fund who elects social security coverage thereby causing the board of trustees of the teachers retirement association to pay retroactive social security employee taxes from his account, shall be required to reimburse the said association in an amount equal to the difference which occurs when employee contributions at the rate of seven percent of his total salary are subtracted from the sum of three and one half percent of his total salary plus the amount of social security employee taxes paid on such salary in accordance with the federal insurance contribution act covering public service after January 1, 1971. In the event any such member does not reimburse the association within one year, or before retirement, whichever is earlier, following notification by the teachers retirement association of the amount so due, formula service credit will be prorated in accordance with section 354.05, subdivision 25.

Approved March 5, 1971.
