employment has ceased, shall knowingly act as agent or attorney for anyone other than the authority in connection with any judicial or other determination, contract, claim, controversy, charge, accusation, arrest, or to the particular matter involving a specific party or parties in which the authority is a party or has a direct and substantial interest and in which he participated personally and substantially as an officer or employee, through decision, approval, disapproval, recommendation, the rendering of advice, investigation, or otherwise, while so employed. No person having been so employed, within one year after his employment has ceased, shall appear personally before any court or governmental department or agency as agent or attorney for anyone other than the authority in connection with any proceeding, application, request for a ruling or other determination, contract, claim, controversy, charge, accusation, arrest, or other particular matter involving a specific party or parties in which the authority is a party or directly and substantially interested, and which was under his official responsibility as an officer or employee of the authority at any time within a period of one year prior to the termination of such responsibility. This section shall not apply to the deposit of any funds of an authority in any bank in which a member of an authority shall have an interest if such funds are deposited and protected in accordance with Minnesota Statutes 1949, Chapter 118. If any commissioner or employee of an authority previously owned or controlled an interest, direct or indirect, in any property included or planned to be included in any project, or presently has such interest, he immediately shall disclose such interest in writing to the authority, and such disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the authority. Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine or not less than $50 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than three months, or both.

Approved May 26, 1971.
