Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. COURTS; FIRST AND TENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICTS; REPORTERS' SALARIES AND EXPENSES. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, Section 486.05 to the contrary, each district judge in the first judicial district and the tenth judicial district, by an order filed with the county auditors annually on or before the first Monday in June, 1971, and on or before the first Monday in January, annually thereafter, shall fix and establish the salary of the district court reporter at $14,500 per year, and, in such order, each of the said judges shall apportion the salaries of the reporters in their respective districts among the several counties, and each county shall be required by such order to pay a specified amount thereof in monthly installments, which shall be such proportion of the whole salary as the population in each county bears to the total population in the district as set forth in the most recent federal census. It is provided, however, that in the event a judge is temporarily transferred to hold court in some county other than in his judicial district then, and in that event, the said county shall pay that part of the monthly salary of the judge's reporter as that part of the month worked by said reporter in said county. Each reporter shall have and maintain his residence in the district in which he is appointed. The reporter, in addition to his salary, shall be paid such sums as he shall accrue as necessary mileage, traveling and hotel expenses while absent from the city or village in which he resides in the discharge of his official duties, such expenses to be paid by the county for which the same were incurred upon presentation of a verified itemized statement thereof approved by the judge; and the auditor of each county, upon presentation of such approved statement, shall issue his warrant in payment thereof.

Sec. 2. All laws now in force relating to the salary of the court reporters of the first and tenth judicial districts, inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed and superseded.

Approved June 7, 1971.
