CHAPTER 259—S.F.No.1319

An act relating to the state civil service; extending the appointment of unskilled labor service from five months to seven months; amending Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 43.09, Subdivision 3.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 43.09, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. CIVIL SERVICE; UNSKILLED LABOR; APPOINTMENT; LABOR SERVICE. All positions involving unskilled labor shall constitute a labor service. The civil service board shall designate the class or classes of positions which shall comprise the labor service and create rules for that service designed to expedite and make more economical the personnel processes in such service. Such rules shall provide, among other things, for: (1) certification of the entire list of eligibles, which list may be supplemented by eligibles certified by any appointing authority, to appointing authorities from which selection and appointment to positions in the labor service may be made without limitation; (2) layoff and reemployment of employees within the discretion of the appointing authority without recourse and without regard to factors considered in similar transactions in classified positions in other than the labor service except as provided in subdivision 7; (3) simplified and expedient procedures of effecting and reporting personnel transactions concerning employees in the labor service; (4) temporary demotion and promotion of employees in the labor service as the needs of the service may require; (5) control, in the labor service, of leaves of absence with and without pay, sick leave and hours of employment by the appointing authority; provided that any proposed deviation from the rules on these subjects governing the classified service other than the labor service shall be subject to the approval of the civil service board; (6) appointments of special labor, under project or other unusual employment circumstances, to positions in the labor service; without regard to existing reinstatement, reemployment, and original entrance lists, for such periods of time as the needs of the service may require as approved by the
