

Nothing in this subdivision shall apply to purchases for their own use by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals or charitable institutions not operated for profit.

Subd. 2. REMEDIES. Any person injured by unfair discrimination as defined in subdivision 1 may bring a civil action and recover damages, together with costs and disbursements, including reasonable attorney's fees, and receive other equitable relief as determined by the court. The remedies provided by this section are cumulative and shall not be construed as restricting any remedy which is otherwise available.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 151.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. Each pharmacy shall post and maintain in a conspicuous place a list easily read by consumers which shall contain the names and current prices of the 60 prescription drugs most frequently dispensed by such pharmacy based upon the dollar volume of sales. Each pharmacy shall also, upon request, including requests by telephone, provide to consumers who possess a prescription for any drug, the current price of such drug.

CHAPTER 723—H.F.No.133

An act relating to charitable hospitals; requiring mandatory arbitration on issue of union security; amending Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 179.38.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 179.38, is amended to read:

179.38 CHARITABLE HOSPITALS; ARBITRATION MANDATORY. In the event of the existence of any labor dispute which cannot be settled by negotiation between the charitable hospital employers and their employees, either such employers or employees may petition and avail themselves of the provisions of sections 179.01 to 179.17, insofar as sections are not inconsistent with the provisions of sections 179.35 to 179.39. If such dispute is not settled within ten days after submission to mediation, any unsettled issue of maximum hours of work ~~and~~, minimum hourly wage rates, and other conditions of employment concerning union security shall, upon service of written notice by either party upon the other party and the director of mediation services, be submitted to the determination of a board of arbitrators whose determination shall be final and binding upon the parties. The board of arbitrators shall be selected and proceed in the following manner, unless otherwise agreed between the parties: the employers shall appoint one arbitrator, the employees shall appoint one arbitrator, and the two arbitrators so chosen shall appoint a third arbitrator who shall act as chairman and who shall receive reasonable compensation for his work; but if said arbitrators are unable to agree upon the appointment of such third arbitrator within five days after submission to arbitration, the governor shall submit five names to the parties and the parties shall select the third arbitrator, who shall act as chairman, from the five submitted by the governor. The selection of the third arbitrator shall be by the process of elimination, with the parties taking turns at striking names from the list of five submitted by the governor, until only one name remains. If the parties are unable to agree with respect to which party shall take the first turn for the purpose of striking a name, it shall be decided by the flip of a coin. Each party shall be responsible for compensating the arbitrator of their choice, and the parties shall share equally the compensation paid to the third arbitrator. The board of arbitrators shall serve as a temporary arbitration tribunal and shall have the powers provided for commissioners under section 179.08. The board of arbitrators shall make its determination with all due diligence and shall file a copy of its report with the director of mediation services.

Approved May 24, 1973.
