CHAPTER 174—S.F.No.3200

An act relating to community corrections; acquisition of necessary facilities by counties; transfer of state employees; amending Minnesota Statutes, 1973 Supplement, Section 401.04.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes, 1973 Supplement, Section 401.04, is amended to read:

401.04 COMMUNITY CORRECTION; ACQUISITION OF PROPERTY; SELECTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE STRUCTURE; EMPLOYEES. Any county or group of counties electing to come within the provisions of sections 401.01 to 401.16 may (a) acquire by any lawful means, including purchase, lease or transfer of custodial control, the lands, buildings and equipment necessary and incident to the accomplishment of the purposes of sections 401.01 to 401.16, (b) determine and establish the administrative structure best suited to the efficient administration and delivery of the correctional services described in section 401.01, and (c) employ a director and such other officers, employees and agents as deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 401.01 to 401.16. To the extent that participating counties shall assume and take over state correctional services presently provided in such counties, preference shall be given to the employment of those state officers, employees and agents thus displaced; if hired by a county, such employment shall, to the extent possible and notwithstanding the provisions of any other law or ordinance to the contrary , be deemed a transfer in grade with all of the benefits enjoyed by such officer, employee or agent while in the service of the state.

Sec. 2. This act is effective the day following its final enactment.

Approved March 15, 1974.
