CHAPTER 315—S.F.No.1149

An act relating to state government; permitting use of duplicating machines for police training in the bureau of criminal apprehension; amending Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 16.02, Subdivision 16.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 16.02, Subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. BUREAU OF CRIMINAL APPREHENSION; POLICE TRAINING; DUPLICATING MACHINES. To maintain and operate for state departments and agencies a central mailing service, and a duplicating division in which all duplication shall be done; to require that all equipment now or hereafter owned by the state be turned into the central duplicating division for use therein with the following exceptions:

(a) duplicating machines may be used ~~in-by~~ any department, institution, or state agency not located in St. Paul or Minneapolis, or ~~in-by~~ the state department of civil defense, or by the attorney general, or by the bureau of criminal apprehension in the administration of police training ;

(b) the motor vehicle department may continue to fill the necessary data on motor vehicle license registration cards on duplicating machines or by duplicating process;

(c) the civil service department may continue to produce work of confidential nature on their own duplicating machines;

(d) the department of public service may utilize a duplicating machine for the purpose of issuing its orders and other work which is confidential until the time of its release.

The duplicating work to be done by the duplicating division shall be restricted to producing any form, booklet or pamphlet to the extent deemed appropriate by the commissioner of administration.

The term "duplicating" as used in this subdivision means that material produced by use of stencils, masters and plates which are to be used on single unit duplicating equipment not larger than 11 by 17 inches and which have a maximum image of 10 3/4 by 16 1/2 inches.
