

tem shall review the fiscal condition of the special survivor retirement account in the light of the prospective demands for payment therefrom in the next fiscal year. If the ~~state auditor-director~~ determines that the balance in such account on June 30 plus the prospective receipts in the next fiscal year appear to be insufficient to meet the demands on such account during the next fiscal year, the ~~state auditor-director~~ on July 1 of each year shall make ~~and file in his office~~ an order increasing the rate of contribution to such account by the several judges of the probate court from four percent of their salaries to such rate of contribution as will, in the judgment of the ~~state auditor-director~~, provide sufficient funds in said special survivor benefit account to pay all demand thereon during the next fiscal year. If on any following June 30, the ~~state auditor-director~~ should determine that a lower rate of contribution will provide sufficient moneys to pay all demands on such special survivor benefit account, he may on the next July 1, make and file an order reducing the rate of contribution to such rate as will in his judgment provide sufficient moneys to meet all demands on such special account in the current fiscal year but in no event lower than four percent. Each county shall make deductions of contributions in accordance with rates prescribed by law or by order of the ~~state auditor-director~~, as the case may be.

Sec. 21. All books, records, documents and funds relating to the administration of legislators, constitutional officers and judges retirement programs in the possession or control of the state auditor or treasurer are hereby transferred to the possession and control of the executive director of the Minnesota state retirement system.

Sec. 22. This act is effective July 1, 1974.

Approved April 10, 1974.
