

within the county, which newspaper must be a duly qualified legal newspaper, as provided by law. The county board may also refrain from publishing an itemized account of amounts paid out, to whom and for what purpose to the extent that the published proceedings of the county board contain such information, provided that all disbursements aggregating $1,000 or more to any person are set forth in a schedule of major disbursements showing amounts paid out, to whom and for what purpose and are made a part of, and published with, the financial statement. The county board may refrain from publishing the names of persons receiving poor relief or direct relief and the amounts paid to each, but the totals of the disbursements for such purposes must be published. In addition to the publication thereof in the newspaper designated by the board as the official newspaper for publication of the financial statement, the same shall be published in one other newspaper of the county, if there be one located in a different municipality in the county than the official newspaper. The county board shall call for separate bids for each publication. At its meeting in July and January each year it shall examine and count all the funds in the treasury, examine the accounts and vouchers of the auditor and treasurer, and make a written certificate of the condition of the treasury, showing the amount, kind, and character of the funds therein, and all other matters in connection therewith and file the same with the auditor. Insofar as any provision of this section is inconsistent with the provisions of section 393.07, the provisions of that section shall prevail.

CHAPTER 280—S.F.No.903

[Coded in Part]

An act relating to counties; providing for the filling of vacancies in the office of county commissioner; amending Minnesota Statutes 1974, Chapter 375, by adding a section; Section 375.03; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1974, Section 375.10.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1974, Section 375.03, is amended to read:

375.03 COUNTY COMMISSIONERS; VACANCIES IN OFFICE; TERM OF COMMISSIONERS. In each new county, and in each county which shall be entitled to an increase of the number of commissioners, there shall be elected at the next general election a commissioner from each odd-numbered district for a term of two years, and one from each even-numbered district for a term of four years; and thereafter all commissioners shall be elected for a term of four years, except that elections ~~or appointments~~ to fill vacancies shall be for the unexpired term only. In counties having a population of more than 150,000, every such commissioner, before he enters upon his duties, shall give bond to the state in the sum of $10,000, with a legally authorized surety company as surety, conditioned for the faithful performance of his official duties. Such bond shall be approved by a judge of the district court, and together with his oath of office and certificate of election, be filed with the register of deeds. The premium on the bond shall not exceed that prescribed by law for county treasurers, and shall be paid by the county.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1974, Chapter 375, is amended by adding a section to read:

[375.101] VACANCY IN OFFICE OF COUNTY COMMISSIONER. Subdivision 1. A vacancy in the office of county commissioner shall be filled at a special election to be held not less than 30 nor more than 60 days after the vacancy occurs. The special primary or special election may be held on the same day as a regular primary or regular election, provided that the special election shall be held not less than 14 days
