interest in a concert hall having not less than 2,000 seats, whose purpose is to advance the knowledge and love of music, to provide education of musical tastes, and to provide an opportunity to hear and enjoy the best music. Any licenses issued pursuant to this paragraph may authorize the sale of intoxicating liquor only to the holders of tickets to performances either presented by such nonprofit corporation or held in premises leased or owned by such nonprofit corporation, and members of such nonprofit corporation and their guests.

(2) To any nonprofit corporation which has a fee or leasehold interest in a building which is used for a purpose for which the corporation is organized, and is located on or adjacent to public park lands, whose purpose is to foster and promote educational and artistic interests, establish, own, or control and maintain museums, galleries, and libraries, and to operate a children's theatre as an educational and theatrical resource, and to provide lectures and instructional entertainment to promote educational and artistic interests. Any licenses issued pursuant to this paragraph may authorize the sale of intoxicating liquor only to members of such nonprofit corporation and their guests, and other persons who are participating in artistic and educational opportunities provided by such nonprofit corporation.

(3) To any nonprofit corporation which has a fee or leasehold interest in a building which is used for a purpose for which the corporation is organized, and is located within 750 feet from public park lands, whose purpose is to promote education and recreation in the field of contemporary art; to promote the creation and enjoyment of art of all kinds; to present exhibitions, programs in performing arts and films, design and architectural and related educational activities and to acquire and show works of art documenting major contemporary artistic styles. Any license issued pursuant to this paragraph may authorize the sale of intoxicating liquor only to members of such nonprofit corporations and their guests, and other persons who are participating in artistic and educational opportunities provided by such nonprofit corporations.

Sec. 2. Licenses issued pursuant to this act may be issued notwithstanding any limitations imposed by law, charter, or ordinance relating to liquor patrol limits, zoning, park board property, or school or church distance limitations. Such licenses shall be in excess of any limitations imposed by Minnesota Statutes, Section 340.11, Subdivision 6, or otherwise. Such licenses may be issued notwithstanding the limitations of Minnesota Statutes, Section 340.13, Subdivisions 3, 5, and 7. The governing body may issue to each of the above establishments a special license for the sale of intoxicating liquor on Sundays, pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 340.14, Subdivision 5, subject to the restrictions contained therein, except as to the requirement that facilities for the service of food be available. All other laws, charter provisions, or ordinances relating to the licensing and regulation of on-sale liquor establishments, including the granting, renewal, suspension or revocation of licenses shall apply.
