

Subd. 6. In sections 115.71 to 115.82 substitute the word "council" for the word "board" wherever that word occurs.

Subd. 7. In sections 402.01 to 402.10 substitute the words "regional commission" for the word "board" wherever that word occurs.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1974, Sections 15.046, as amended by Laws 1975, Chapter 380, Section 8; 72B.09; 114.01; 114.02; 114.03; 114.04; 114.05; 114.06; 114.07; 114.08; 126.023; 168.187, Subdivision 6; 178.02, Subdivision 3; 197.14; 252.29; 362.16; and Minnesota Statutes, 1975 Supplement, Sections 86A.10, Subdivisions 3, 4 and 5; 241.023; and 299C.47 are repealed.

Sec. 64. Sections 44 to 49, and related transfers and continuations pursuant to section 61, shall be effective May 1, 1976. The remainder of this act shall be effective July 1, 1976. The state environmental education council shall continue to have 13 members appointed by the governor until July 1, 1978, at which time the reduction in size of the state council as specified in section 23 shall be effective. Until such time as the state agencies whose names have been changed by this act are able to economically make all changes in designation required by this act, they may continue to use their present designations, but the use of those designations shall not extend beyond the first Monday in January, 1978. The board of governors of the Big Island veterans camp shall remain in existence until it has transferred title to its real property to the state of Minnesota as provided in this act.

Approved April 3, 1976.

CHAPTER 150—S.F.No.1920

An act relating to juvenile courts; requiring written findings of fact for all dispositions of delinquent, dependent, and neglected children; amending Minnesota Statutes 1974, Sections 260.185, Subdivision 1; and 260.191, Subdivision 1.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1974, Section 260.185, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

260.185 JUVENILE COURTS; WRITTEN FINDINGS; DISPOSITIONS; DELINQUENT CHILD. Subdivision 1. If the court finds that the child is delinquent, it shall enter an order making any of the following dispositions of the case which are deemed necessary to the rehabilitation of the child:

(a) Counsel the child or his parents, guardian, or custodian;

(b) Place the child under the supervision of a probation officer or other suitable person in his own home under conditions prescribed by the court including reasonable rules for his conduct and the conduct of his parents, guardian, or custodian, designed for the physical, mental, and moral well-being and behavior of the child, or with the consent of the commissioner of corrections, in a group foster care facility which is under the management and supervision of said commissioner;

(c) Subject to the supervision of the court, transfer legal custody of the child to one of the following:

(1) A child placing agency; or

(2) The county welfare board; or

(3) A reputable individual of good moral character; or

(4) Except for children found to be delinquent as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, clauses (c) and (d), unless the child has previously appeared before a juvenile court on the same charge, and in the judgment of the court, community resources have been exhausted, a county home school, if the county maintains a home school or enters into an agreement with a county home school; or

(5) A county probation officer for placement in a group foster home established under the direction of the juvenile court in accordance with standards established by the commissioner of corrections;

(d) Except for children found to be delinquent as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, clauses (c) and (d), unless the child has previously appeared before a juvenile court on the same charge, and in the judgment of the court, community resources have been exhausted, transfer legal custody by commitment to the commissioner of corrections;

(e) If the child is found to have violated a state or local law or ordinance which has resulted in damage to the property of another, the court may order the child to make reasonable restitution for such damage;

(f) If the child is in need of special treatment and care for his physical or mental health, the court may order the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to provide it. If the parent, guardian, or custodian fails to provide this treatment or care, the court may order it provided.

(g) If the court believes that it is in the best interests of the child and of public safety that the driver's license of the child be cancelled until his eighteenth birthday, the court may recommend to the commissioner of highways the cancellation of the child's license for any period up to the child's eighteenth birthday, and the commissioner is hereby authorized to cancel such license without a hearing. At any time before the termination of the period of cancellation, the court may, for good cause, recommend to the commissioner of highways that the child be authorized to apply for a new license, and the commissioner may so authorize.

Any order for a disposition authorized under this section shall contain written findings of fact to support the disposition ordered, and shall also set forth in writing the following information:

(a) Why the best interests of the child are served by the disposition ordered; and

(b) What alternative dispositions were considered by the court and why such dispositions were not appropriate in the instant case.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1974, Section 260.191, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

260.191 DISPOSITIONS; NEGLECTED OR DEPENDENT CHILD. Subdivision 1. If the court finds that the child is neglected or dependent, it shall enter an order making any of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Place the child under the protective supervision of the county welfare board or child placing agency in his own home under conditions prescribed by the court directed to the correction of the neglect or dependency of the child;

(b) Transfer legal custody to one of the following:

(1) A child placing agency; or

(2) The county welfare board;

(c) If the child is in need of special treatment and care for his physical or mental health, the court may order the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to provide it. If the parent, guardian, or custodian fails to provide this treatment or care, the court may order it provided.

Any order for a disposition authorized under this section shall contain written findings of fact to support the disposition ordered, and shall also set forth in writing the following information:

(a) Why the best interests of the child are served by the disposition ordered; and

(b) What alternative dispositions were considered by the court and why such dispositions were not appropriate in the instant case.
