
CHAPTER 34—H.F.No.951

An act relating to education: state universities; authorizing the state university board to enter into reciprocity agreements with educational institutions in other states and foreign countries; amending Minnesota Statutes 1974, Section 136.111, Subdivisions 1 and 2.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1974, Section 136.111, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

136.111 EDUCATION; STUDENTS; RECIPROCITY WITH OTHER INSTITUTIONS. Subdivision 1. In order to make the most provident utilization of state ~~colleges-universities~~, and private colleges in Minnesota, and public and private colleges and universities in ~~contiguous-~~other states and in foreign countries and to avoid duplication of facilities, it is desirable to provide means which will enable a student resident within the areas served by such institutions of higher education to obtain his desired courses in the most expedient manner and at the least possible cost.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1974, Section 136.111, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The state ~~college-university~~ board may therefore enter into contracts with private colleges or public colleges or universities, or the governing boards thereof, in ~~contiguous-other states and in for-~~foreign countries and private colleges within this state on a reciprocal basis in order to accomplish the following:

(a) To enable a student at any institution party to such a contract to take a specialized course or courses at a different institution from that in which he is enrolled, with or without the payment of tuition charges at the other institution;

(b) To enable a student enrolled in any of the institutions party to the contract to attend another institution party to such contract without being required to pay nonresident tuition fees and in accordance with the terms of such contract;

(c) A contract entered into pursuant to this subdivision shall provide for approximately equal advantages between the contracting institutions and shall provide that the admission of nonresidents shall be on a space available basis only.
