Subd. 1a. The revisor of statutes shall periodically prepare style and form revisions of rules to clarify, modernize, or simplify the text without material change to the rules' substance or effect. Before beginning any revision, the revisor shall consult the agency whose rules will be subject to the revision. After the revision is prepared, the revisor shall present it to the agency and receive its consent to proceed to seek adoption of the revision. Upon receiving consent, the revisor shall seek adoption of the rules in accordance with section 15.0412. However, the need and reasonableness statement and any hearing shall be restricted to the issue of whether any material change in the substance and effect of the rule is proposed by the revisor. The revisor shall mail notice of any hearing to the persons registered with the agency whose rules are the subject of the revision. The revisor shall pay all costs to publish notices in the state register and to replenish the agency's stock of rules which exist at the time the revisor adopts the revised rules.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 648.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. The revisor of statutes shall not:

(1) alter the sense, meaning, or effect of any rule in the course of compiling or publishing it;

(3) act as legal counsel for an agency before a hearing examiner except as provided by section 38.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 648.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. In order to ensure that the complete text of rules is included in the first compilation published pursuant to subdivision 1, clause (b), and containing the revisor's certificate, the revisor may use the Minnesota Code of Agency Rules, the State Register, the rule files of the secretary of state, the files of individual agencies, the records of the hearing examiner's office, and the records of the attorney general. The revisor is not required to compare the text of a rule as shown by the other possible source documents with the text of the rule in the secretary of state's file.

If any comparison of documents shows there is a material discrepancy in the text of the rule, the revisor shall include in Minnesota Rules the text in the secretary of state's files unless the discrepancy between the secretary of state's files and any of the other documents is the result of an obvious unintentional omission or clerical error. The text published by the revisor shall correct those omissions and errors. The revisor shall add an appropriate footnote describing the apparent discrepancy in text. Before publication of Minnesota Rules, the revisor shall also notify the agency whose rules are affected, the attorney general, the chief hearing examiner, and the legislative commission to review administrative rules about the omission or error.

If any comparison of documents shows that a rule has been filed with the secretary of state but apparently has not been published in the state register as required by law the revisor may, unless the attorney general objects, include the rule in Minnesota Rules or omit the rule if the rule was a repeal but shall add an appropriate footnote describing the apparent fault. Before publication of Minnesota Rules, the revisor shall notify the agency whose rules are affected, the attorney general, the chief hearing examiner, and the legislative commission to review administrative rules about the apparent lack of publication.

If a comparison of documents shows that a rule as adopted in the state register has apparently not been filed with the secretary of state, the revisor may not publish the rule in Minnesota Rules unless the attorney general approves the publication. Before publication of Minnesota Rules the revisor shall notify the agency affected, the attorney general, the chief hearing examiner and the legislative commission to review administrative rules of the apparent lack of filing of the rule. If the revisor publishes the rule, the revisor shall add an appropriate footnote describing the apparent lack of filing.

The text of the rules in the first compilation published by the revisor is prima facie evidence of the text of the rules as against any previous documents. However, the previous documents may be used to construe the text of a rule. Except as provided in section 45, the compilation shall not be construed as repealing any unpublished rule. The rules published in the compilation shall be construed as continuations of prior rules and not as new rules.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 648.50, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The revisor of statutes shall file with the secretary of state one copy of each compilation or supplement which is published. Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 648.50, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

rule. If there is any material inconsistency through omission or otherwise between the first compilation, a subsequent compilation or supplement, the state register, and a rule filed with the secretary of state, and the omission or change was not due to the provisions of section 44 or 45 or the correction of an obvious error or unintentional omission as required by section 40, the rule filed with the secretary shall prevail.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 648.50, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) In preparing a compilation or supplement, the revisor ~~shall not alter the sense, meaning or effect of any rule; but~~ may renumber rules, paragraphs, clauses or other parts of a rule; combine or divide rules, paragraphs, clauses or other parts of a rule; rearrange the order of rules, paragraphs, clauses, or other parts of a rule; move paragraphs, clauses, or other parts of a rule to another rule; remove redundant language; make minor punctuation and grammatical changes to facilitate the renumbering, combining, dividing, and rearranging of rules or parts of rules; change reference numbers to agree with renumbered rules, paragraphs, clauses or other parts of a rule; substitute the proper rule, paragraph, clause, or other part of a rule for the term "this rule", "the preceding rule" and the like; substitute numbers for written words and written words for numbers; substitute the term "rule" for the term "regulation" when "regulation" refers to a Minnesota rule; substitute the date on which the rule becomes effective for the words "the effective date of this rule", and the like; change capitalization, punctuation, and forms of citation for the purpose of uniformity; correct manifest clerical or typographical errors; correct all misspelled words; and correct manifest grammatical and punctuation errors.

(b) The revisor shall provide headnotes as catch words to rules and, if appropriate, to paragraphs, clauses, or other parts of a rule. The headnotes are not part of the rule even if included with the rule when it is adopted. The revisor shall change headnotes to clearly indicate the subject matter of the rules. "Headnote" means any text functioning as catch words to the substance of text and not itself communicating the substantive content of the rule.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 648.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. For purposes of any compilation or publication of the rules, the revisor, unless the attorney general objects, may omit any extraneous descriptive or informative text which is not an operative portion of the rule. The revisor may also omit effective date provisions, statements that a rule is repealed, prefaces, appendices, guidelines, organizational descriptions, explanations of federal or state law, and similar material. The revisor shall consult with the agency, the attorney general, the legislative commission to review administrative rules, and with the chief hearing examiner before omitting any text from publication.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 648.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. For the purposes of any compilation or publication of the rules, the revisor, unless the attorney general objects, may omit any rules that, by their own terms, are no longer effective or have been repealed directly by the agency, repealed by the legislature, or declared unconstitutional or otherwise void by a court of last resort. The revisor shall not remove a rule which is suspended and not fully repealed, but shall, if practicable, note the fact of suspension in Minnesota Rules. The revisor shall consult the agency involved, the attorney general, the chief hearing examiner, and the legislative commission to review administrative rules before omitting a rule from publication.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 648.50, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. In determining the drafting form of rules the revisor shall:

(b) not permit incorporations into the rules by reference of publications which are not conveniently available to the public;

(c) to the extent practicable, use plain language in rules and avoid technical language; and

(d) amend rules by showing the text of the rule, paragraph, clause, or other part of a rule being amended as necessary to provide adequate notice of the nature of the proposed amendment, as it is shown in the latest compilation or supplement, or, if not yet published in a compilation or supplement, then as the text is shown in the state register, with changes shown by striking and underlining words.

Sec. 47. INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.
