

1982 FIRST SPECIAL SESSION LAWS
of the
STATE OF MINNESOTA

Enacted by the Seventy-Second Legislature
at the First 1982 Special Session,
March 30, 1982

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The Seventy-Second Legislature adjourned sine die on March 19, 1982; and
- WHEREAS: House File 1220 was passed by both houses on that day; and
- WHEREAS: Several provisions of House File 1220 were essential to assure timely payment of unemployment benefits to 96,000 recipients; and
- WHEREAS: These provisions were addressed in legislation introduced during the 1981 regular session and the December 1981 special session; and
- WHEREAS: The Legislature failed to enact the necessary changes until the final day of the 1982 session at which time they combined the Unemployment Insurance changes with legislation enacting unacceptable revisions in Minnesota's Workers' Compensation system; and
- WHEREAS: Because of the unacceptable changes in the Workers' Compensation system, House File 1220 was vetoed; and
- WHEREAS: It is necessary to immediately address these unemployment insurance issues prior to the next regular session of the Legislature, thereby creating an extraordinary occasion; and
- WHEREAS: Article IV, Section 12 of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota provides that a special session of the Legislature may be called on extraordinary occasions;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby summon you members of the Legislature to convene in special session on Tuesday, March 30, 1982 at 10 A.M. in the forenoon at the Capitol in St. Paul.

I urge the Legislature to act as expeditiously as possible in enacting the necessary amendments to Minnesota's Unemployment Insurance Law which will assure timely payments of the unemployment benefits to all eligible persons.

JOAN ANDERSON GROWE
SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed this twenty-fifth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-two and of the State one hundred twenty-third.

ALBERT H. QUIE
GOVERNOR
