

Sec. 2. METROPOLITAN AREA APPLICATION.

Subdivision 1. ADVISORY COMMITTEE. An advisory committee on aggregate resources within the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, is created. There shall be 15 members of the advisory committee who shall be appointed by the metropolitan council after consultation with appropriate metropolitan interest groups. At least two members of the advisory committee shall be members of municipalities that use aggregate resources, two members shall be from municipalities that produce aggregate resources, three members shall be from metropolitan county government, three members from the aggregate resource industry, the commissioner of natural resources or his or her designee, the commissioner of the department of transportation or his or her designee, and the chairman of the metropolitan council or his or her designee who shall be the chairman and shall provide administrative support to the advisory committee. Members of the advisory committee shall serve without per diem compensation.

Subd. 2. REPORT REQUIRED. By December 31, 1985, the advisory committee shall submit a report to the legislature that:

(1) identifies whether currently available information on the quality, quantity, and distribution of the aggregate resource is adequate to allow reasoned decisions on the need to introduce aggregate resource protection into local comprehensive planning and land use controls;

(2) recommends a procedure for identifying the degree of protection desirable for the long term availability of aggregate resources; and

(3) recommends a method to protect aggregate resources for the long term.
