Louis county records, was back on the tax rolls by 1925, which is as far back as the county tax records for that parcel extend; the department of revenue has not found any evidence that either a state assignment certificate or a conveyance of forfeited lands covering this tract of land was ever issued; the state has not shown an interest in the property in that time; and various owners since 1901 have paid taxes on the property. The conveyance is merited to extinguish the state's interest and to quiet title to the property.

Sec. 2. EFFECTIVE DATE.

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment.
