CHAPTER 372—H.F.No. 1859

An act relating to transportation; exempting volunteer drivers of private passenger vehicles from certain passenger service rules of the commissioner of transportation; amending Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 221.031, subdivision 3a.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 221.031, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. CONTRACTORS OR RECIPIENTS OF TRANSPORTATION ASSISTANCE. Notwithstanding subdivision 3, providers of passenger transportation service under contract to and with operating assistance from the department must comply with rules of the commissioner for driver qualifications, safe operation of vehicles, equipment, parts and accessories, maximum hours of service of drivers, inspection, repair and maintenance, and accident reporting.

This subdivision does not apply to (1) a local transit commission, (2) a transit authority created by the legislature, or (3) special transportation service certified by the commissioner under section 174.30, or (4) special transportation service defined in section 174.29, subdivision 1, when provided by a volunteer driver operating a private passenger vehicle defined in section 169.01, subdivision 3a.

Sec. 2. EFFECTIVE DATE.

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment.
